Notice # 2021-03

From: Bob Conroy, Director of Asset Management

Issued: March 15, 2021

In This Issue:

I. IRS Form 8703 – Annual Certification of a Residential Rental Project

I. IRS Form 8703 – Annual Certification of a Residential Rental Project

The operator of a residential rental project for which an election was made under Section 142(d) of the Internal Revenue Code must file Form 8703 annually during the qualified project period. This form must be filed by March 31 after the close of the calendar year for which the certification is made. The latest revision of this Form (Rev. 9-2013) includes Part III which requests information about the Issuer and the tax-exempt financing that financed the project under section 142(d).

In order to assist in completing Part III of the form, MaineHousing has posted information on its Tax-Exempt Private Activity Bond Issues on our website at the links listed below.

To gather the information on your project, first open the “MaineHousing MF Project List” at <http://www.mainehousing.org/partners/partner-type/property-owners-managers/tax-exempt-bond-project-information>. Locate your project from the list and note the bond series in column C. Please note that it is possible for your project to be listed under more than one bond series. If it is listed under more than one bond series the Form 8703 will need to include information on each bond series. If your project was previously on the “MaineHousing MF Project List” and is no longer listed, you should consult your accountant to determine whether you still need to file a Form 8703 for the project.

Once you know the bond series, open the “MaineHousing Master Bond List” at <http://www.mainehousing.org/partners/partner-type/property-owners-managers/tax-exempt-bond-project-information>. This list contains the information on each bond series that is needed to complete part III of Form 8703 and corresponds with boxes 14 – 20 on the form.

Please note the bond information for your project will not necessarily stay the same for the life of the project. This information will need to be reviewed on an annual basis. Please also note that MaineHousing does not provide tax advice. If you have questions related to the filing of this form you may want to consult your tax professional or contact the IRS at
